Homework

- 1. Prepare one written sentence in Arabic to answer this question for me: "What is this? (pointing to nature signs)".
- 2. Microteaching: This time we'll do translation again. You are going to explain for other students how you translated a verse of your choice from the Qur'an (should contain the referring or conjugating nouns learned in the previous class). Again, the important thing is how you use logic thinking and how you apply the grammar you have learned in the class, so it's OK to look in a translation for the overall meaning of the verse. 6
